

Environment

Ministry of Health restructures
TheMHS Conference - Auckland

Platform's Activity

- > Platform moves office to 147 Tory St Wellington co-location with Blueprint Centre for Learning and Te Pou Workforce Development team
- > Invitation to participate in the WHO Pacific Mental health network
- > Prof Justine Schneider from UK (employment issues researcher) visit
- > Inform and advice the PRIMHD-NGO Implementation Plan
- > NGO Information Use Project
- > Platform representative on the Nationwide Service Framework Project
- > Publication of Performance Story Report

2008
election year

Throughout the timeline Platform staff have presented at conferences, meetings, briefings and have undertaken political lobbying representing the position of the Non Government Sector

Approximately 100 students from The Open Polytechnic of New Zealand have been placed through Platform for workplace study with NGO mental health and addiction providers