

2023 GENERAL ELECTION

KEY MESSAGES

Platform Charitable Trust

These are the actions that the next Government should take to improve the mental health and addiction system and services, and reduce systemic inequalities across society.

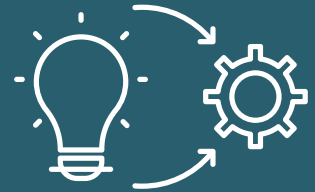

1

Back the strength, skills, and solutions we have in the community.

2

Act on the work that has been done – be courageous.

3

Fight the reasons behind inequality, like poverty, housing, and income.

4

Save lives by changing how Aotearoa supports people with mental health and addiction needs.

